CABEF announces winners of prestigious national agricultural scholarships

[PORT ELGIN, ON] – Seven students from across the country are recipients of the 2021 Pathways to Agri-Food Scholarships, sponsored by the Canadian Agri-Business Education Foundation.

The $2,500 scholarships are awarded to students entering or currently pursuing an agricultural or agri-food related program at a Canadian college, university or technical institution.

This year's recipients are:

Carleigh MacLeod, Kinkora, PEI
Marika Lemieux, Coaticook, QC
Maggie-Jo Hickson, Oakwood, ON
Mireille Krul, Winnipeg, MB
Marika van den Berg, White City, SK
Julie Sharp, Lacombe, AB
Amanda Crane, North Vancouver, BC

“We are proud to support the future of the Canadian agriculture industry with these scholarships,” says Jenn Norrie, chair of the board for CABEF. “With the high-quality applications received from students across the country, the future of Canadian agriculture is very bright.”

Applicants were assessed on a combination of their leadership attributes, and written or video response to the question "Name a challenge that you think agriculture can help solve. How will your future career in agriculture allow you to play a role in solving that challenge?"
